

Safety and Health Environment Management Policy

The company considers safety, health, and environmental management policies
as the top priority among all management policies.
Recognize and implement < SAFETY FIRST >

1 Safety, health, and environmental management

Establishment of safety, health, and environmental management goals with periodic planning to achieve them.
Operate an optimal safety, health and environment management system through monitoring and improvement.

2 Hazard management

Conduct safety and health activities as a top priority, comply with safety rules, and identify risk factors for potential harm.
Create a safe and pleasant working environment through evaluation and improvement.

3 Duties of executives and employees

Through continuous customized training for executives and employees, as well as the operation of various communication channels.
It will take the lead in establishing a safety culture that promotes safety as a part of daily life within the organization.

4 Reduction of pollutants

Activities to reduce pollutant generation for the sustainable future of both nature and people.
Take the lead in preventing environmental accidents.

5 Low carbon green growth

It leads to low-carbon green growth through the use of clean energy and the application of green technology.

6 Pursuit of ESG management

Pursue sustainable development through eco-friendly, socially responsible, and transparent management practices.

KOREA CIRCUIT CEO